

Tinkerbell's Story

Hello, my name is Tinkerbell. It's been a whirlwind couple of weeks for me, but I'll try to tell you my story as best I can...

I was found in Ensenada Mexico by a kind lady who saw my bad front leg and how hard it was for me to get around on it. She took me in and fed me. She took me to the doctor and got me feeling better, and something else called "spayed" which I didn't like one bit. But her other dogs didn't like me (I think they were jealous because I'm so cute) so she had to find another home for me.

This kind lady took me to Sunny Benedict, at the Baja Animal Sanctuary office in Rosarito Beach. Sunny knew she couldn't take me out to the Sanctuary with all the bigger dogs because I'm so little (only 15 pounds) and they might make fun of me because of my leg. So Sunny sent me up to San Diego to yet another nice lady named Deborah. Deborah lives in a beautiful place with a kind husband and lots of other animals that she takes care of. On Easter, Deborah had her friend Lisa Lee come over to visit. Lisa has a rescue group too! I love these people!! It's called Underdog Rescue, and they find loving, "forever" homes for animals like me who need one. Well, let me tell you, Lisa is not one to sit around and do nothing. I found that out real fast! The very next day, Lisa took me to ANOTHER doctor who said I would be a lot better off without this dumb leg anyway. So I had an operation and now I only have three legs. But now I feel a lot better and can walk and jump and pretty soon will be completely recovered and ready for a new home! Like I said, it's been a crazy couple of weeks, but I know that everyone loves me and wants to take good care of me.

I'm pretty sure someone out there will want to adopt me, too. I love to wag my tail, beg for scraps from the table, and sit in laps. I get along real well with other dogs and I like cats.

Anyone who is interested in adopting me FOREVER can contact The Baja Animal Sanctuary at www.bajadogs.org or Underdog Rescue at www.underdogrescue.net

Love, Tinkerbell (that's me!)
